"Women's ways are inscrutable, and they do a great many things that seem to be utterly without point to men, but it has been my experience that time shows they had a pretty good reason for the queer tricks they played us," said a citizen of Montreal.

"For instance," he continued, "my wife has an angelic disposition. She has always had that disposition, and it was one of the many things that attracted me to her. After we became engaged, however, on several occasions she did things which seemed to me to be utterly inexcusable. I've got something of a temper, and I would get pretty hot, but every time the little trouble passed off, she having gained her point, however. This sort of thing happened several times, but we were finally married.

"After the ceremony she never gave any symptoms of inconsistency, but was always as sweet and amiable as was always as one day I asked her why she had done these things during our engagement and if she had done them merely to make me angry.

"'Certainly I did, my dear,' was her surprising reply. 'I am a prudent woman and merely wanted to make sure I could manage you when you were mad.' "-Louisville Herald.

Tennyson and Spiritualism.

The world might have lost some of its choicest poetry had a certain spirit-ualist had his way. It was Frederick Tennyson, who was so impressed by spirit rapping that his head had be-come as much turned as the table whose waitzings used so to delight him. He desired his brother, the poet laureate, to give up everything to propagate spiritualism. Frederick told the old story of an unmusical girl made to play music by invisible influence and of a stout old gentleman who was suddealy picked up and whizzed through the thickness of solid walls all in a moment to be found in a courtyard of a house a mile and a half distant hose gates were closed and locked. The poet did believe there was something in spiritualism—there is a re-markable latter of his to Queen Victoria on the subject—but he could not swellow the story of the fat old gentleman's travels. So he contented himself with poetry and let spiritualism alone.

You must improve your mastication. Quite spontaneously Miss K. remarked how very rapidly you ate, more rapidly. she said, than Miss S. And as I know Miss S. eats in a helter skelter manner I can understand that your mastication must be extremely inefficient. If I had to teach children, I should give them, among other things, a lesson on the im-portance of mastication and should fllustrate it by taking a small iron nail and weighing against it some pinches of iron filings till the two balanced, then putting them into two glasses pouring into each a quantity of diluted sulphuric acid, leaving them to stir the two from time to time and showing them that, whereas the iron filings quickly dissolve, the dissolving of the nail would be a business of something like a week.-Herbert Spencer's Auto-

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means; a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes daniruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. This word of late has been hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
